

HOW TO MAKE A REFERRAL

Children or adolescents need NOT have committed arson in order to receive the benefits and services of this program. If a child shows a reoccurring interest in fire, is playing with fire or participating in firesetting behaviors, he or she is eligible for referral to the

Bergen County Juvenile Fire Prevention Program

STEPS TO A SUCCESSFUL REFERRAL:

1. Advise the family of the referral
2. Educate the family regarding BCJFPP services
 - Initial Screening Interview with parent and child
 - Fire Safety Education
 - Anger Management Training (If applicable)
 - Clinical Treatment/Information and Referrals (If applicable)
3. Complete the Referral Form
4. Fax or mail the Referral Form to the Program Manager
5. Include copies of any relevant paperwork
 - Police Report
 - Court Order
 - Discharge Summary

To ensure access to the program, there is no fee and hours and locations are convenient to families

Joan Walpole, Manager
BCJFPP
17-07 Romaine Street
Fairlawn, NJ 07410
201-797-2660, extension 144
Fax - 201-797-5025